FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 22, 2018

Kewaunee County to Host Hazardous Waste Collection for Residents

CASCO, WI – Kewaunee County Emergency Management is inviting residents to properly dispose of unwanted agricultural and household hazardous waste, as well as medications, opioids and sharps during their “2018 Clean Sweep” collection.

The event will be held on Saturday, April 21st at the Kewaunee County Hillside Highway Shop, E2180 HWY 54, Casco from 8AM-NOON.

Volunteers with Kewaunee County will be on site unloading the items being brought to the highway shop with the help of Veolia Environmental Services. This FREE service for residents is made possible with grants received from the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection as well as funding from Kewaunee County Families and Communities Encouraging Success (FACES).

Residents interested in participating are asked to pre-register with Kewaunee County Emergency Management before Friday, April 13th over the phone, online or via mail:
